

Attention Juniors!!!

The Tomorrow's Leaders Program is a leadership training program for the top high school Juniors in Volusia County.

Students chosen for this program will interact with community leaders, learn about community resources and the various factors impacting the future of Volusia County. This program prepares students for constructive leadership, responsible citizenship and the active participation in the affairs of Volusia County and beyond.

Applications are due to high school principals by noon,
Wednesday, September 16th.

The six-month program begins in October with an orientation session for students and parents. Each month thereafter, students attend a seminar or workshop focusing on a specific topic, such as Criminal Justice, Social Services, Healthcare, Manufacturing, the Arts, Government, and Education. During each seminar, students interact with community leaders who share insights on goal setting, effective communication, time management, motivation, human behavior and other aspects of effective leadership.
